NELSON, NEW ZEALAND

NELSON TASMAN IS RENOWNED FOR ITS STUNNING NATURAL LANDSCAPES

Tucked right into the very top of New Zealand's South Island, Nelson is easy to miss. Yet, it would be foolish to do so; overlooking Nelson would be overlooking a fabulous town with friendly people, gorgeous scenery and no shortage of superlative food and wine.

The city has long held a magnetic pull for creatives of all types: it's known for artisanal craft shops and diverse art galleries. In fact, with one of the largest numbers of working artists and galleries in the country, you'll find an array of talented craftspeople living in the region; from traditional, to contemporary to Māori.

Not only is Nelson one of the sunniest cities in New Zealand, but it is the oldest on the South Island (and second oldest in the country). The land was bought in 1840 by the British for £800, with the intention of providing a place to live to settlers. By 1843 almost 2,000 adults had relocated to the province, yet lack of funds thwarted their dreams of becoming landowners. Thus Nelson has been largely left alone by industry.

Population has swelled in recent years due to the town's stunning natural landscapes, but this is a place for young families and lovers of the Great Outdoors. Set on the Able Tasman Coast Track, and on the border of the Nelson Lakes National Park, there is much to keep your eyes - and legs! - occupied.

Kayak alongside dolphins, penguins and seals in the Tonga Island Marine Reserve, bathe in the crystal waters of the Kahurangi National Park or a low tide beach walk - or ride - in Wharariki.

SIGHTS

- Abel Tasman National Park
- The Suter Art Gallery
- Queen's Gardens
- The Nelson Provincial Museum
- Broadgreen Historic House
- Tahunanui Beach
- Nelson Lakes National Park

TE WAIKOROPUPŪ SPRINGS

This is the largest freshwater spring in the southern hemisphere with approx. 14,000L of water per second bubbling up from underground vents. It's also among the clearest in the world. The colourful little lake is reached via a 45-minute forest walk from the car park, where you can find Māori carvings and illuminating information panels.

Māori consider this a wāhi tapu (sacred place), and the waters are off limits to all but the local tribe who use them for healing and other ceremonies. Tradition has it that a taniwha (a kind of dinosaur-like spiritual guardian) regularly visits here.

Spanish Sunday Family Dinner in La Terrazza

The all-time favourite tapas originated in Spain and various legends about the origins of having small snacks with a drink – an age-old tradition in Spanish inns and taverns – have been attributed to various monarchs.

One legend has it, that during the reign of King Alfonso X "The Wise" in the 13th century, tapas began to be served as an accompaniment to drinks to prevent drunkenness.

The tapas tradition has deep roots throughout Spain, and each region has its own specialties.

LET'S CELEBRATE NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL FOOD & BEVERAGE DAYS

TODAY: Drink Wine Day (USA)

At Silversea Cruises, we take maximum food precautionary measures to ensure the safest quality product is offered to our guests; Worldwide Public Health Services advise that consuming raw or undercooked meats, seafood, shellfish, eggs, milk, or poultry may increase your risk of food-borne illness, especially if you have certain medical conditions.

HAND WASHING & HAND SANITIZING

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean, running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands. Please use the hand sanitizers situated at the entrance door of the dining outlets and various locations around the ship.
