OTARU, JAPAN

FAMOUS FOR ITS GLASS PRODUCTS, MUSIC BOXES, AND ALCOHOL BEVERAGES

Otaru is a small harbor city west of Sapporo. Famous for its many hills and a nearby ski resort the town has been an important trade and herring fishing center since the 1800s. A wide canal that led from the port to the old town's warehouses which were built by foreign shipping and trading companies, has been maintained for touristic purposes. The old stone or brick-built warehouses have been beautifully converted to restaurants and boutiques.

Local artists display their crafts by daytime, while old-fashioned gas lamps illuminate the area with a gentle glow by night, making it a pleasant place to stroll at any time. However, the canal area is undoubtedly at its most photogenic during the Otaru Snow Light Path festival, held each year in February, when the city is decorated with hundreds of enchanting candle-lit snow lanterns.

After you've explored the canal and its surroundings, continue your time-travelling as you take a turn along Sakaimachi Street, a well-preserved traditional merchant street, exploring some of its quirky museums before heading for a well-deserved sushi lunch. The street is lined with impressive western-style buildings constructed in the late 1800s and early 1900s and many of the buildings exteriors have been carefully preserved.

Sakaimachi Street is also home to a handful of interesting museums, like the Museum of Venetian Art, opened by local glass producer Kitaichi. It is dedicated to showcasing the arts of Venice including Venetian glassware, clothing and furniture, as well as a full-scale gondola. Another highlight is the Music Box Museum which is Japan's largest music box shop and an internationally well-known sightseeing attraction in Otaru.

SIGHTS

- Otaru Aquarium
- Otaru Museum
- Otaru Shukutsu Panorama Observation Deck
- Tanaka Sake Brewery, Kikkogura
- Sankaku Market
- Old Aoyama Villa (Herring Palace)

OTARU MUSIC BOX MUSEUM

In the historical building of the Otaru Music Box Museum, more than 25,000 music boxes of 3,400 kinds are displayed and sold. The Otaru Music Box Museum ("Otaru Orgel Doh" in Japanese) is Japan's largest music box store. The store is divided into five floors according to different themes, with beautifully decorated and beautifully sounding music boxes lined up. From affordable ones to luxurious ones, you will be able to find your favourite from a wide range of products.

COMEDIAN TONY DARO

TONIGHT'S SHOW

▶ AT 6:30 P.M.
▶ THE SHOW LOUNGE, DECK 6

Tony Daro's hilarious routines have made him one of the established stars of the New York comedy scene. Tony's first television appearance was as a child on the show "Wonderama" where he lost at Simon Says. Tony overcame this humiliating television debut and began performing in summer stock as a teenager. After high school he won an acting scholarship to the world-renowned Dramatic Workshop.

This led to various Off-Broadway productions. When he was 19, Sylvester Stallone hired Tony to be his stand-in for the film "Rocky 2". At 20, Bob Keeshan (more famously known as "Captain Kangaroo") hired Tony to star in a television pilot for CBS. For reasons still unknown to him to this day, he drifted into standup comedy. (Maybe it was all those George Carlin records he listened to as a kid?) Soon people began to ask him to write jokes for them, which eventually led to writing jobs with Jay Leno, Bill Maher, David Letterman, Jimmy Fallon and Tina Fey. He has dozens of television appearances under his belt, has won multiple Writer's Guild awards for comedy writing and was nominated for an Emmy Award for his work on "Saturday Night Live".

Tony is the rare comedian who can be both inoffensive and gut-busting funny.

HAND WASHING & HAND SANITIZING

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean, running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands.
