BUSAN, SOUTH KOREA

FROM BEACHES AND MOUNTAINS TO HISTORIC SITES, MUSEUMS, AND TEMPLES

A tapestry of kaleidoscopic colours, intense seafood flavours, and urban beach bliss, Busan rolls across a glorious natural setting on the Korean Peninsula's south-east. One of the largest and busiest ports in the world, 3.5 million people call South Korea's second city home, and the amiable locals help to lend the city its quirky, offbeat outlook.

A spacious, playful and cosmopolitan place, Busan is a lively, liveable city, cradled by lush mountains and endless ocean scenery. Haedong Yonggung Temple nestles on a dramatic cliffside, just above the crumbling rocks and crashing waves of the East Sea. Dating back to 1376, the temple's multi-storey pagoda is adorned with lions - each representing a different emotion.

Elsewhere, lanterns glitter in the night sky around Mount Geumjeongsan, freshly released from the beautiful Beomeosa Temple, which was established in AD 678. The hillside shantytown of Gamcheon Culture Village has completed an improbable transformation, blossoming from a sea of makeshift homes for Korean war refugees, into a colourful explosion of creativity and curiosity.

Local artists have been let loose to create interactive installations, and the entire area is now an expansive canvas for expression. Lose yourself among vibrant alleyways of flamingo-pink, lemon-yellow and baby-blue painted facades in this unique area. Sample bibimbap, fiery-hot beef and rice, from street food vendors, before relaxing on one of South Korea's best beaches - Haeundae's banana bend of sand.

Metallic skyscrapers offer an unusual backdrop to this pristine expanse of golden powder and are mirrored by elaborate sandcastles and sculptures during the annual sand festival - when spontaneous water fights and firework displays also take place. Gwangalli beach is another urban option, laying out spectacular views of the reaching Gwangan Bridge - the country's second largest bridge. At night, 16,000 bulbs bathe this engineering marvel in colour.

SIGHTS

- Haedong Yonggungsa Temple
- Gukje Market
- BIFF Square
- Diamond Tower (Busan Tower)
- Haeundae Beach
- Songdo Bay Station

GAMCHEON CULTURE VILLAGE

Refugees settled in Gamcheon Village during the Korean War and cultivated the mountainous region to make a living. In 2009, students, artists, and residents decorated the village as a part of the Village Art Project, and the town grew into a leading tourist attraction of Busan since then. Due to its houses built in staircase-fashion on the foothills of a coastal mountain, it received the nickname "Machu Picchu of Busan." Many alleys are vibrantly decorated with murals and sculptures created by the residents.

BOAT BUILDING COMPETITION

YOUR CHANCE TO GET CREATIVE AND GET CRAFTING

▶ THE OFFICIAL START WAS ON 23 APRIL AND THE JUDGING ON 8 MAY

A renowned and highly anticipated World Cruise tradition is our annual boat building competition. In this entertaining contest, we call all our guests to put their brains and creativity to the test in building a 'Sea-Worthy' boat. The boats have to undergo certain trials and challenges in order to be crowned the Silver Shadow champion. You are invited to work alone or in teams. The boat will be tested on overall creativity of design and presentation, ability to float un-assisted in the pool, and on amount of weight it can hold (the weights used will be 12oz. cans, so the ship needs to be designed to hold those types of weights).

You may use any materials that you can find around the ship for the construction of your boat, provided that you will not cause damage to any property of the Silver Shadow. We also want you to 'create' your ship, so no using of large materials such as life-jackets, trash cans, etc, and the total length of the ship can be no longer than 40 inches (100cm). We will set up a table that will have materials available for you to use in the construction of your ship. Be as creative as you want in your presentation and design, and most importantly, HAVE FUN! If you have any questions, please contact Cruise Director Moss or your International Hostesses in the Cruise Director Office on Deck 5.

TAG HEUER
