KODIAK, ALASKA, USA

BEST KNOWN FOR THE MIGHTY KODIAK BROWN BEAR AND RICH WILDLIFE

The domain of grizzlies, brown and black bears, Kodiak Island is a raw, wild, and utterly authentic Alaskan wilderness. The Emerald Isle is the USA's second-largest island, and with a wilderness stretching out over 3,670 square miles, it's a thrilling voyage into the Alaskan unknown.

The weather may get a little cloudy at times, but the locals actively welcome a covering of cloud – perhaps partly because the clouds and fog are said to have deterred Japanese attacks during World War II's hostilities. Be sure to bring your camera with you; it's nigh on impossible to take a bad photo of these irresistible vistas – and you'll quickly see why Kodiak Island is the destination of choice for wildlife documentary producers.

Cinematic setpieces regularly play out, as eagles soar over expansive sweeps of fir-tree forested mountains and still lakes, releasing occasional piercing calls. Some of the animal kingdom's most feared and revered creatures call Kodiak Island home, and your first sight of a bear reaching a massive paw into the water, or treading through a gently burbling stream, will live with you forever. Soar in a seaplane to track the bears with an expert guide. Masters of disguise, it often takes a trained eye to spot the bears in their natural habitats.

The waters of Kodiak Island are also home to some of the world's most productive fishing. Try out your own skills, or accompany a seafaring fishing vessel, to witness life on the waves first-hand, as they plunder the depths of the ocean.

KODIAK NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE VISITOR CENTER

The Kodiak National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center can be found in the city of Kodiak, with exhibits primarily on the Kodiak brown bear along with a film about the refuge and a bookstore.

The 1.9-million-acre Kodiak National Wildlife Refuge, is home to about 3,000 Kodiak brown bears. The refuge is renowned for bear viewing while the Karluk River and the Ayakulik River offer world-class fishing opportunities for salmon and steelhead. Other recreational opportunities include kayaking, rafting, photography, and camping.

COMING SOON TO A PIANO NEAR YOU

WITH MUSICAL HUMORIST DALE GONYEA

▶ AT 6:30 P.M.
THE SHOW LOUNGE, DECK 6

At the age of five, Dale Gonyea got up very early one morning and, without a single lesson, spontaneously began playing the piano. His parents were astonished because they did not have a piano. They decided he needed therapy or music lessons. Therapy was expensive. They bought a piano, and a career was born. He is a University of Michigan music graduate who now uses the piano as the springboard for his unique humor. Gonyea is an Emmy winner, a Clio nominee, and Grammy-nominated.

He has written songs for Disney, including Goofy's Anthem, "You Can Always Be Number One" and the Genie's song for The Return of Jafar, the sequel to Aladdin. The Los Angeles Times proclaimed him "heir to the piano-comedy throne".
