Xiamen, fruitful for cultural activities

Xiamen is a major city, located on the Taiwan Strait coast of China. According to the statistics in 2014, around 3.8 million people live here. It was established around 282AD and continued to be a naval fortress until modern time.

Xiamen is made up of Xiamen Island, Gulangyu Island and part of the rugged mainland coastal region, as well as a deep and warm harbour. Many endangered species such as the Chinese white dolphin, European lancelet and little egret can be founded in the national natural reserve region in Xiamen.

Xiamen is also fruitful for cultural activities: Naamyam, Gaojia opera and Taiwanese opera display how the local people do musical and stage performances using different languages, tools and clothing. Apart from Chinese traditions, other attractions to be discovered in Xiamen are western colonial buildings, a Buddha temple, Catholic Church, and Mosque.

Xiamen is a hub of the Maritime Silk Road. Xiamen became one of the first Chinese harbors open to the outside world; after 1980 when China carried out reform and opening up policy, Xiamen became one of the four Chinese special economic zones which were proactively open to the world.

Xiamen mainly produces subtropical fruits, fish-flavor peanuts, water chestnut crunchy candy, preserved olives, Tongan stuffed cakes, dried meat floss, mushroom and minced meat, dried marine products, medicinal foods, pearl embroidery, lacquer line carvings, colorful cloth figures, colorful clay figures and porcelain figures. Especially the handicrafts are of great varieties and are rich in local flavor and are welcome by people.

At Silversea Cruises, we take maximum food precautionary measures to ensure the safest quality product is offered to our guests; Worldwide Public Health Services advise that consuming raw or undercooked meats, seafood, shellfish, eggs, milk, or poultry may increase your risk of food-borne illness, especially if you have certain medical conditions.

HAND WASHING & HAND SANITIZING

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean running water. Alcohol-based hand sanitizers can quickly reduce the number of germs on hands. Please use the hand sanitizers situated at the entrance door of the dining outlets and various locations around the ship.
