DA NANG, VIETNAM

A sublime mixture of secret lagoons, spiritual sites and Vietnamese energy

Just North of Hoi An, Da Nang often gets overlooked on the traveller trail. However, as the third largest city in Vietnam (with a population of 1 million), Da Nang packs a punch that puts other Vietnamese cities in the shade.

Naturally, Da Nang is a savvy choice. The beaches are simply stunning - white sand that runs on for miles, lapped by sapphire seas and punctuated by tall coconut trees. The mountains are stunning - vast swathes of emerald green poking out of the top of the few skyscrapers the city has, and the temples are vast and plentiful. From Lady Buddha - an 18th century shrine and statue that guards over the fishermen - to the Marble Mountains, Da Nang is a sublime mixture of secret lagoons, spiritual sites and Vietnamese energy.

The aforementioned Marble Mountains are undeniably the city's main attraction, although the Golden Hands Bridge (40 kilometres from the city centre) is fast overtaking the Mountains for top spot. Both are sublime in their beauty - one a spiritual pilgrimage site sculpted by (and named after) the elements, the other, a man-made structure of two giant concrete hands that stretch towards the sky. You have a destination that offers travellers far more than tourist trinkets. If you are looking for a Vietnamese city that offers both connection and authenticity, you have found it in Da Nang.

SIGHTS

- The Marble Mountains
- Sun World Ba Na Hills
- Lady Buddha
- My Khe Beach
- Dragon Bridge

SHOPPING

It is a must-have experience for visitors to this coastal city. From local markets selling traditional handicrafts to modern malls featuring high-end brands, the city offers a diverse range of shopping options in a vibrant atmosphere!

For the best shopping in Da Nang experience, don't forget to note down these tips:

- Set a budget before going shopping to avoid overspending
- Ask the locals for recommendations on reputable shops and vendors
- Take note of the opening and closing times of markets to plan your itinerary
- Research and compare the prices before making purchases
- Bargain politely but confidently to get the best prices
- Bring cash, as some smaller stores may not accept credit cards
- Consider purchasing souvenirs at the local markets for unique and affordable finds
- Be wary of counterfeit products, especially when shopping for luxury goods
